

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Nick Davis named new William Pitt brokerage manager in Ridgefield

Ridgefield — William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty recently named Nick Davis as the brokerage manager for the firm's office in Ridgefield.

Davis spent the first six and a half years of his real estate career with the Ridgefield office, before serving as a brokerage manager for Weichert in Ridgefield for five and a half years. During his time with William Pitt, Davis was named a Gold Star producer, and at Weichert, he was also honored as Manager of the Year in 2015.

Nick Davis

"I am excited to come home to the company where I launched my real estate career so many years ago," Davis said. "As brokerage manager,

I am greatly looking forward to working with one of the most exceptional real estate teams in town. I've always loved the Sotheby's International Realty brand, and find it a perfect match for Ridgefield, Fairfield County, and all of Connecticut. I am excited to use my working knowledge of towns such as Weston, Wilton, Redding, Danbury and Brookfield in conjunction with our talented agents in the Ridgefield office."

Paul Breunich, President and CEO of William Pitt, expressed that Davis's strong sales and management background along with his expertise in Fairfield County make him an ideal fit with the company.

"Nick brings a passion for real estate combined with a relentless focus on outstanding service and providing an extraordinary client experience," Breunich said. "His deep knowledge of the business and impressive background as a manager, agent and broker will allow him to carry on our company's tradition of exceptional leadership. I am thrilled to welcome Nick back to the team."

Prior to his career in the real estate industry, Davis worked at the French American Group, a manufacturer of luxury leather products that sells to retailers around the globe. In his 20 years with the company, Davis worked his way up to the position of President and CEO.

Davis has been married for the past 30 years and has two sons. In his spare time Davis enjoys golf, fly fishing and jogging. For many years Davis was heavily involved in his community as a baseball and soccer coach and has been a director at The Redding Boys and Girls Club.