

AGENT PROFILE Michelle Hennessey

A corporate relocation expert

For more than 15 years, Michelle Hennessey worked in corporate relocation, helping families and individuals get settled in their new homes and communities, so her transition into real estate was a natural fit.

“My experience working with transferes and their families was a great foundation for building my real estate career,” Hennessey said. “Helping people find the right house and community to create their next ‘home sweet home’ is incredibly rewarding.”

Hennessey continually strives to exceed her client’s expectations and is always seeking new ways to provide exceptional service.

“I want to take the definition of a ‘Five Star Realtor’ to a totally new level,” she explains, referencing the Five Star Professional award that recognizes Realtors who provide exceptional service based on research with peers, firms, consumers and regulatory sources.

Hennessey considers herself a “go-to” resource for anything her clients need to know about their new community.

“I am here to help make the process as smooth as possible and my client relationships last well beyond the end of the transaction,” she said. “I can expertly guide buyers through every step of their move, from purchase to settling-in. With sellers, each client benefits from a customized marketing strategy based on a creative combination of print, digital and
