Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty Names Jane Murray as New Larchmont Brokerage Manager

Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty has announced Jane Murray as the new manager for the firm's Larchmont brokerage. Murray previously served as the brokerage's assistant manager, a role she assumed in August of 2017.

Murray has over 14 years of professional real estate experience in Larchmont and Mamaroneck, New Rochelle and Pelham offering extensive market knowledge and strong negotiating skills. Prior to serving as the assistant manager of the Larchmont brokerage, Murray was a sales associate with the company. She is a member of numerous professional associations, and was a consistent Top Westchester Agent Award winner. Murray has also been recognized as a Westchester Five Star agent for five consecutive years.

"It has been a privilege to serve as the assistant manager of the Larchmont brokerage, and I am looking forward to embracing this new chapter in my career," Murray said. "I am excited to use my extensive knowledge of the Sound Shore area to propel our office to continued success. I look forward to continue leading the many talented agents in our office."

Paul Breunich, President and CEO of Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty, expressed that Murray's strong sales and management background along with her expertise in Westchester County make her an ideal fit for this role with the firm.

"Jane brings a passion for real estate combined with a relentless focus on outstanding service and providing an extraordinary client experience," said Breunich. "Her deep knowledge of the business and impressive background as a manager will allow her to carry on our company's tradition of exceptional leadership."

Murray has resided with her husband and two children in Larchmont and Mamaroneck for over 25 years, actively supporting the community through the Mamaroneck School District PTAs, SEPTA and the Larchmont and Mamaroneck Chambers of Commerce.
